JOB OFFER

Apprenticeship as a Construction Mechanic (m/f/d)

About the position

At our Mayen location we are offering an apprenticeship as a Construction Mechanic (m/f/d), specialising in equipment technology, starting on 1 August 2027. Your apprenticeship lasts 3.5 years.

LOCATION

Mayen

Stocktal 2, 56727 Mayen, Deutschland

EMPLOYMENT TYPE

Full-time

Your responsibilities

- Production of metal construction assemblies based on technical drawings and bills of materials
- Production of individual components from sheets, profiles and tubes using manual and mechanical processes
- Turning, milling, welding, bending, drilling and screwing of components
- Assembly of fabricated components and machines
- Carrying out maintenance and repair work on steel structures and machines

Your profile

- Good basic secondary school leaving certificate or qualified lower secondary school certificate
- Technical understanding and interest in mathematics
- Manual dexterity and practical skills
- Commitment, reliability and ability to work in a team
- Interest in new challenges

What we offer

- Solid training in a successful team, supported by an experienced trainer
- Good apprenticeship pay in accordance with the IG Metall Bezirk Mitte collective agreement
- 30 days of annual leave
- Inter-company training at the Industrie-Lehrwerkstatt Koblenz with specialist courses
- Flexible development opportunities after training in an internationally active company
- Opportunity for worldwide assignments of up to 2 weeks

- Workwear and equipment
- Parking on the company premises
- Shower facilities
- Company outings and company celebrations
- Company bike leasing (JobRad)
- Running group
- Charging points for electric vehicles